Taking the "Duh" Out of Divorce
Divorce is painful and confusing for kids. Using gentle humour, original music and a compelling story line, Trev uses Skye's experience to give kids practical, helpful advice for dealing with the pain of divorce—such as knowing that it isn't their fault, avoid hiding their emotions, and talking to friends. After all, as Skye discovers, her parents aren't divorcing her—they love her! Run Time: Approx. 25 min. Plus Special Features

Cliques, Phonies, & Other Baloney
Using hilarious real-life situations, Trev helps kids understand the difference between a group of friends, and an exclusive or mean clique. Being part of a clique is okay, but excluding others and putting people down is not. In his warm, caring and funny way, Trev offers helpful suggestions on how to dare to be different, keep an open mind about others, and how to remain true to yourself. Run Time: Approx. 25 min. Plus Special Features

Facing Fear Without Freaking Out
Trev invites us to join Jack and Skye on their most perilous adventure yet—facing their fears! They will not just face fears of spiders or heights, but scary emotional anxieties like not fitting in or taking tests as well. Using laughter, great music and hair-raising chills, this episode offers practical advice on anxiety, thinking positive thoughts and not panicking! Run Time: Approx. 25 min. Plus Special Features

If You Don't Take Care Of Your Body, Where Else Are You Going To Live?
